

before we go . . .

font finds

Summer and scripted fonts go hand in hand, especially scripts that are a bit chunkier in style and less formal. The following fonts would be great for the title or subtitle on your next summer page. Plus, they're all free. Even better!

Summer

LOBSTER, fontsqurrel.com

This font has a decidedly retro feel and would be perfect for any summer design. Think beach. Think picnic. Think the great outdoors. Think fun.

Summer

PACIFICO, fontsqurrel.com

Pacifico has a swagger and style all its own. The upper case letters have a lot of sass and flavor. This style of script would be great on a summer sports-themed page.

Summer

GRAND HOTEL, fontsqurrel.com

This script lacks the common slant found in most script fonts, making it feel a bit more formal while still retaining its charm. This gem would be perfect for a girl-themed layout.

Summer

BALLPARK WEINER, dafont.com

Here's another retro styled font that looks like a cool breeze, whether by the ocean, a lake, or simply at pool side. This free option would also make an ideal heading for a family reunion page or a day at the amusement park.
