Want to get some craft room inspiration? Take a peek inside Vicki Boutin's creative space!

UP When designer Vicki Boutin started dreaming up plans for her creative work space, she never knew how much work and how much FUN it would be. She wanted to make the space uniquely her own in every way and put her Vicki B. touch on every nook and cranny! Get ready to be inspired by her finished space.

Always be on the lookout for the next great container! This metal tray holds Distress Inks perfectly, and Vicki also scored some charming Rae Dunn pieces from her local HomeSense.

VICKI'S DREAM SPACE

Personality is key when creating a place you love! When it comes to personality, Vicki Boutin is a gold medalist, and her creative space is just as fun and perky as she is! It comes as no surprise that the feature wall in the photo above is stenciled like she'd do on a layout but on a much larger scale. A big, bold hello. welcomes her and anyone else who enters. What a fun spot to create!

ROOM TIP: Whatever space you have for creating, make sure you fill it with objects that bring you joy! It's really about what inspires you.

IT'S THE CUSTOM TOUCHES

Vicki knew she wanted to be inspired by colour and that's how her gorgeous wall was born.

Using stencils and paint, she created this beautiful rainbow of floral images that truly serves as the focal point in this space. Her shelves are filled with treasured objects and offer a visual feast of delight and inspiration.

ORGANIZATIONAL TIP: Open storage is key for Vicki's work flow. She loves being able to see what she has, and sometimes just looking at her supplies sparks one of her brilliant ideas! Plus, it's all kinds of pretty in rainbow order, don't you agree?

ORGANIZATIONAL TIP: Vicki's peg board keeps many of her most-used supplies within easy reach. The white peg board gives an airy feel to her space, but imagine painting it your favourite colour!

OTHER TIP: Create a space you love! Vicki's sitting area is warm, welcoming, and colourful!
