double it up!

block it out!

Nestle four horizontal photos into one block to celebrate a summertime feast in the backyard. We love how Jennifer's layout looks so long and lean with the main portions of the page—photo, title, and journaling—all part of one vertical section on the layout.

DESIGN TIP: Use the sunrays to add in journaling written in brief phrases. Not only are you able to tell the story, but the words also give the sunrays even more interest!
