Turn your title into something truly special!

BY PAIGE EVANS

It's no secret that I love pink and flowers, so this page encapsulates some of my favourite things! I used my spring-themed Blooming Wild collection from American Crafts to create this 12 x 12 layout.

THE FOCUS:

A large floral title is the focus of this issue.

Make major impact on a layout with a commanding title. It's a fun way to spell out the theme of a layout. The pretty flowers do all the work for me, and the O in the word LOVE is the perfect frame for a lovey-dovey black and white photo of my husband and me.

PAIGE POINTERS:

- Fussy cut large floral letters from patterned paper.
- Choose a solid cardstock background or switch things up and choose a subtle patterned paper background. You want to make sure to let your title shine.
- Attach the large letters with foam squares for depth and dimension.
- Place a photo in the middle of the O with the florals peeking out from behind.
- Add scalloped border stickers, additional floral stickers, and a journaling spot to embellish.
- Finish with patterned paper photo corners and a stitched border to keep the eyes within the page boundaries.

PLAY WITH YOUR LETTERS

Take a cue from Paige and use this design idea for card projects, too! You can feature a large sentiment and add flowers or maybe even critters inside letters with enclosed sections like A, B, D, O, and P, etc.
