

Shellye McDaniel

thanks her maternal grandmother for the gene that evokes the urge to create. Like her grandmother, Shellye can't just sit unless she has something in hand...be it a knitting project or a crafty magazine.

With her two oldest kids now out of the house, Shellye recently went back to work full-time as a school administrative assistant/nurse. She finds time for crafting on the weekends and is currently serving on the We R Memory Keepers and Xyron Design Teams. She loves all types of papercrafting, especially cardmaking and has a clean-and-simple style that's dressed up in a touch of whimsy.
