

Spooky Things is creeping closer – here's what you need to know!

Hello, friends!

Thank you so much for joining us for Spooky Things, our one-day Halloween-themed papercrafting event on October 18th featuring the Spooky Things collection from Simple Stories! This frightfully fun event is filled with creative classes, spooky-cute projects, and a few fang-tastic surprises, too.

As October 18th creeps closer, we have some hauntingly fun updates to share with you.

Facebook Group

Our Spooky Things Facebook Group will open on August 27th, and we cannot wait for you to join us! While classes will be hosted on YouTube, the Facebook group will be the place to share sneak peeks, set up class albums, and get to know your fellow crafty ghouls.

Shipping

Our team will begin shipping kits around September 20. Boxes will be shipped through Canada Post, USPS, and select local carriers. Most kits should arrive within eight business days, and homework will be minimal. If you do not receive your kit by October 9th, please email us at create@scrapbookandcards.com so we can assist you.

Class Information – Important

We have set this event up on our online course platform for easy access to all content. Simply log in to your account on our website and click "My Courses" at the top of the page to find Spooky Things. This dashboard is where you'll find the student supply list, as well as any pre-class preparation work. All YouTube links will be available by late September.

Student Supply List

The full student supply list will be available the week of September 29th. It will be minimal since we packed this kit full!

Your Spooky Line-Up

Here's a sneak peek of what's brewing:
