

Spooky Things is shipping – here’s what you need to know!

Hello, friends!

Thank you again for joining us for Spooky Things, our one-day Halloween-themed papercrafting event on October 18th featuring the Spooky Things collection from Simple Stories! We cannot wait to craft up some thrills and chills with you.

We have a few quick updates for you.

Shipping

Great news — your Spooky Things kit has shipped early! All kits will be in the hands of USPS, Canada Post or smaller local carriers today. We do not anticipate any additional tariff or duty fees for our US customers. If your kit has not arrived by October 1st, please email us at create@scrapbookandcards.com so we can look into your shipment.

While there will not be an Unboxing for this event, we do ask that you keep the contents of your kit under wraps until September 26th. We hope all boxes will have landed by then and want to keep the spooky surprise alive for everyone!

Facebook Group

Our Spooky Things Facebook Group opened on August 27th, and we are excited to start chatting all things Halloween! While classes will be hosted on YouTube, the Facebook group is a place to share sneak peeks, share projects in the class albums, and get to know your fellow crafty ghouls.

Class Information – Important

We have set this event up on our online course platform for easy access to all content. Simply log in to your account on our website and click “My Courses” at the top of the page to find Spooky Things. This is where you'll find the student supply list, any pre-class prep work, and all YouTube links in late September/early October.

Student Supply List

The full student supply list will be available the week of September 29th. It will be minimal since we packed this kit full!

Class Instructions

Our instructors are brewing up their spooky projects now, and we will release class instructions around October 6th.

We cannot wait to gather with you for a day of tricks, treats, and plenty of crafty fun. Until then, keep your scissors sharp and your pumpkins glowing!

As always, if you have any questions, please reach out to us at create@scrapbookandcards.com and put Spooky Things in your reference line.
